Really cozy, homey Turkish dessert spot. Came for tea and snacks. Try the milk pudding thing! Not sure what it's called. It looks kind of funny, but tastes kind of like you're eating a roasted marshmallow, but with a better texture.

But you get that delicious charred taste! read more. What Ferhat Kocer doesn't like about Brighton Gulluoglu Baklava Cafe:

First of I apologize from one of the servers who is Phil. He was great. But the lady who who came after him and get the rest of our orders wasn't that nice and doesn't seem to care about customers. Why? First of all she looked very mad to something (not to me) and made a sound on the table when she put something. Secondly, she brought me wrong pastry and I realized that after first bite (can't see from outside). Her... read more.
