The best dim sum on the island. You don't have to go to Chinatown to get the experience, service and food. When you see a packed house full of Asians then you know the food is going to be amazing! Sunday brunch is where you wanna be! read more. You can use the WiFi of the place free of charge. What Tom S doesn't like about Precious Island Tea Shop:

The most ridiculously overpriced Chinese food I have ever eaten. $18 for every entree on the menu and they don't even give you white rice. This place should be embarrassed by their prices and the quality of their food. We ordered spare ribs(the picture) and they were not edible. We called them back up because they also messed up our order and basically told us to go take a walk. DO NOT EAT HERE. read more.
