I stopped by here for a quick lunch between shows during CAAMFEST. There were a few groups but we were able to get a table. I ordered the yellow corn arepa w/ shredded beef pabellón. The cashier was helpful and our orders came out quickly. The whole dish was so tasty and the flavors were really balanced. I wished I had the time to try more. I'll definitely be back when I'm in the area. read more. The restaurant also offers the possibility to sit outside and eat in nice weather, And into the accessible rooms also come visitors with wheelchairs or physical disabilities. WiFi is available without additional charges. What Grace Y doesn't like about Pica Pica Arepa Kitchen:

Casual spot in the mission. I ordered the sweet yellow arepa with shredded beef pabellon. The plantain was good but the beef itself was really dry. I needed to drown the arepa in the sauces on the table to eat the beef. The yuca fries were also not as crispy as I would've liked; definitely have had better elsewhere. read more.
