I stopped by for breakfast and got the adobosilog with pork and an order of lumpia. Everything was fresh, hot, and tasty. The portions are good, I took more than half home. The staff is very friendly and helpful as well. I will be back to try more! : read more. When the weather conditions is good you can also eat and drink outside, And into the accessible spaces also come visitors with wheelchairs or physiological disabilities. What Arlene G doesn't like about Neri's Casual Filipino Dining:

Horrible experience with the restaurant. We ordered food via delivery during our stay in LA. My mom is from Pampanga and a family of cooks. We have high standards but are still open minded with Filipino food. The pancit palabok was good. That's were it ends. Ordered the chicken adoba and got pork asoba instead. Could not eat it. The Kare Kare was sour and had the worst meat possible; it tasted like it spoiled. That g... read more. The catering service is also provided by the restaurant for its visitors, Besides, the creative blend of different menus with new and sometimes adventurous ingredients is appreciated by the guests - a good case of Asian Fusion. If you decide to come for breakfast, you are offered a hearty brunch, on the daily specials there are also a lot of Asian dishes.
