We've been taking out pupusas from here for years now. Simply because there's nothing better in the area. Today the pupusas were doughy. There is no consistency in the food. And the annoying part today was that the empanadas were so hard. Apparently made from unripened plantains. My husband threw his out. I tried to eat some of mine but I threw mine out also. How could they make these like this in good conscience? Aw... read more.
