What an outstanding Po-boy especially if you like 'em wet! That au jus was perfectly salted and black peppered. Thin sliced roast beef that was tender. And that bread. Just enough to keep it together. Don't try to take it Togo with gravy on it. Get out the napkins!! This place is a must!! read more. What Jane Doe doesn't like about Central Catering:

Traveling from New Orleans we stumbled upon this restaurant. The server was absolutely lovely and polite. We decided to get a shrimp po'boy and an oyster po'boy. The shrimp was pretty good. The oyster po'boy tasted like what I can only imagine breaded boogers to taste like. I asked could we have the oyster po'boy taken off our bill (we only took one bite). The manager (I assume), came over obviously annoyed proceed... read more.
