I also LOVE the food, especially the soup!!! When my kids were YOUNG, as in, 2-3 years old (they are in their 20's now), I'd take them to The Java House A LOT, and my husband and I would go there after Church while our kids were in Sunday School. I have great memories, and continue to go there whenever I am in town!! read more. What Local Reviews doesn't like about The Java House: Coffee roasts are very consistent and quite good. Do not recommend their food on the whole. Most times when I stop in I get the feeling that the workers are deeply and legitimately annoyed that I came in to buy something. read more.
