My husband went in and ordered take out for both of us. He was ignored several times and then he finally went to the other end of the counter and received help. Placed order and paid for it. There is a small sitting area for take out that was full. Due to my husband having a medical condition, he sat down next to the register at a bar seat . He was then asked to get up because a paying customer may come in and want t... read more.
