I recently ate at Patty's Place, a cozy Latino eatery nestled in off street by Walter Reed. The ambiance was warm and inviting that created a relaxed atmosphere. The menu offered a delightful array of classic and innovative El Salvadoran dishes. I started with carne asada one day and huevos rancheros another time for breakfast while having tires replaced nearby. The attentive staff and impeccable service added to the... read more. The restaurant is accessible and can therefore also be used with a wheelchair or physiological disabilities, and there is complimentary WiFi. What User doesn't like about Patty's Place Latin Grill Llc:

Only good plate thus far is Plato tipico. Other than that. Food is not really that great. I noticed that they're not consistent with the price for this breakfast plate. The owner needs some classes on being polite. read more.
