What User likes about The Dutch Door: I had heard many good things about this lunch spot, and when I visited yesterday, it definitely did not disappoint. It is, in a way, a pretty bare-bones operation considering you order at a Dutch door and then take your food away or sit out on their Parklet. But the staff was very attentive, the area was well decorated and clean, and the food was A+. I will definitely be going back again and telling my friends to try... read more. What User doesn't like about The Dutch Door:

In a word disappointing!!The food was nice but truthfully nothing I couldn't get at an airport grab&go when running to catch a flight.I was asked is it to go or "for here" I replied for here and it was served to us at the table in plastic take-away containers ??I wonder how it would have come if I said I'll take it to go ??I am skeptical that it was either made on site or made fresh !! The rooms on site are accessible, and therefore no problem for guests with wheelchairs or physiological limitations. If you're desiring some hot South American gastronomy, you're in the right place: delicious menus, made with fish, sea creatures, and meat, but also corn, beans, and potatoes are on the menu, For a snack in between, the fine sandwiches, small salads, and other snacks are suitable. Most often, the burgers of this restaurant, which are among the highlights, are offered along with sides like french fries, leaf and cabbage salads or wedges, and you have the opportunity to try delicious American meals like Burger or Barbecue.
