Everything about this place was amazing. Me and my family came here on a whim after everywhere else was busy. We last came here years ago and decided we can stop by and try this place since it's not crowded. We immediately got sat down we and were greeted by our lovely waitress. The wait for our food did not take long and everything tastes FANTASTIC. the portions are excellent for what you pay. And the quality and ta... read more. Our family has had De Luca's cater many parties for us until July 1st. Had trouble being on time to pick up our food, when I walked into the restaurant I was scolded over and over and told that I had been called six times and that the food is cold now, by the owner. I was charged $66 for a half a tray of garlic strips which is bread with garlic on it needless to say after being treated like a felon and the exorbitant... read more.
