Best bang for your buck Korean Food, dare I say in the Tri-State area. You will not get this taste, portion, and price anywhere else. The Korean food here is like how mama cooked it, but better. This place makes cooking at home like a chore. Been going here for over a year now. When all else fails just come here : read more. What

User doesn't like about I Am Kimchi:

Went there months ago, but chef wasn't in. Came back today and tried it. The first Korean restaurant in NY where I enjoyed the food. Seasoned well (and this is based on my Caribbean background), didn't have any raw/unappetizing smells- which is a plus especially since I ordered fish soup and it was takeout. I am mostly a side dish person- they tasted very good and weren't watery in any containers. Reasonable prices and... read more. In the kitchen of I Am Kimchi in Broad Channel, traditional meals are prepared with original Asian spices scrumptious, and you can look forward to the scrumptious classic seafood cuisine. Not to forget are the traditional Korean dishes like Kimchi, Bap and also Jjigae, which have a fixed place on the menu card and also on the tables of the guests, Furthermore, the guests love the inventive combination of different menus with new and partially experimental ingredients - a nice example of successful Asian Fusion.
