For seasonal or weekly deals, please contact the restaurant owner directly. You can also contact them through their website. What Deb P doesn't like about The Fainting Go: While I haven 't eaten here I did read an article about the initial closure for Covid the owner is complaining about having to 'throw away ' $3500 worth of food why on earth didn 't she donate the food to a local pantry or local families in need? Speaks volumes. read more. In nice weather you can even be served in the outdoor area, and there is no-charge WiFi. The premises on site are accessible, and therefore no problem for clientele with wheelchairs or physiological limitations. At The Fainting Go from Breese, there are tasty sandwiches, small salads and other snacks for quick hunger in between, as well as hot and cold drinks, the visitors love having the chance to watch the latest games or races on the big TV in this sports bar, while also enjoying food and drinks. After the meal (or during it), you can also relax at the bar with a alcoholic or non-alcoholic drink.
