My family has been to this restaurant for decades. My BF and I have been there together many times, as well.

We usually split a dish because the portions are plenty big to do that. We like to get sake; sometimes I get eggflower soup. Great place for take-out, too. The woman who owns it is very friendly. The waiters, not so much. Although the last two times, we HAVE seen them smile! So maybe they're finally comfortabl... read more.
