Fantastic atmosphere! Great decor, interesting cocktail selection. I'd recommend staying away from the coffee-smoked-old-fashioned (forgot the name): in theory sounds great, in reality not so much. The tamarino-gyn though was excellent! Up-down, y'all! read more. You can use the WLAN of the restaurant free of charge, And into the accessible spaces also come guests with wheelchairs or physical limitations. If the weather conditions are right, you can also be served outside. What User doesn't like about Baobab Lounge:

This bar looks amazing however it is not only over priced but the worst drinks I've ever had at a bar. My wife and I spent $47 on two drinks and left both more than 1/2 full due to them being horrible. The drink the bartender called a version of an "old fashioned" tasted like dirty water and my wife's drink (I forget the name) tasted like cheap and bad lemonade. Do yourself a favor and go somewhere else. read more. If you're craving for some fiery South American culinary arts, this is the place to be: delightful dishes, cooked with fish, seafood delicacies, and meat, but also corn, beans, and potatoes are in the menu, Furthermore, the visitors of the establishment enjoy the comprehensive selection of the various coffee and tea specialities that the establishment has available. It goes without saying that a suitable drink completes a meal; therefore this gastropub provides a sophisticated diversity of scrumptious and regional alcoholic options, be it beer or wine, For you, the meals are normally prepared in the shortest time and fresh.
