This was our favorite Pueblo's to go to. We have stopped by twice since the name change. Both times on a Sunday afternoon when they aren't crowded. Service is slow. Cheese dip is more watery, beans taste like water. So if you like below par food and evenworse service then please stop by. You'll love it. read more. What User doesn't like about Tino's Tex Mex Cantina:

The food is excellent but the service is terrible. The waitress stand around the bar chatting. It took forever to get our food and then it was cold. This was our favorite place, Won?t be back for awhile! read more.
