It was our first time ordering from here and we enjoyed our meals. We had the chicken, grilled fish, plantains, and yellow rice. I liked the marinade that was used for the onions and chicken. Very flavorful food and my toddler was able to enjoy it as well due to it not being too spicy. We would definitely come back again. I also like that they close late as we decided to eat late in the evening. My only complaint would be... read more. Trash. Basura. I ordered jollof as an hungry african, at least red rice but no my food came to be this brown tasteless rice with fish bones and one slice of fish with a big ole carrot and something else that wasn't on the description that then made my food soggy. Idk what that is but it's not jollof.???? read more.
