Tip! Try everything! My favorites: almond-mocha croissant, old fashion donut, seasonal ginger cookie, artichoke croissant for savory, quiche, seasonal pies...so much to try! Love the upstairs Brookfield location in the Financial District; grab and head outside to the marina. read more. The restaurant also offers the possibility to sit outside and eat in pleasant weather, and there is no-charge WiFi. What User doesn't like about Mah-ze-dahr Bakery: Pastries here are pretty good! Especially the strawberry danish. The place is also super cute. The only bad thing is the staff. I've had multiple different experiences with staff giving me attitude for asking if they're still in stock of an item and one time a staff member was texting on her phone while taking out order and didn't even look at me. read more. Mah-ze-dahr Bakery from Arlington is a comfortable coffee house, where you can enjoy a snack or cake with a hot coffee or a hot chocolate. The visitors also rave about the delicious, airy flatbread that can be dipped into the homemade hummus or a yoghurt dip; the unusual combination of figs with goat cheese is also one of the favorites from the diverse cuisine of the Middle East. Besides, you can enjoy oven-warm baked goods, and you can look forward to typical fine French cuisine.
