What User likes about Chicory: A great little spot. The seasonal tempura vegetables were awesome (especially the squash blossom). The decor was cute, facilities were clean and you don't have to tip with the 20% added gratuity ensuring their employees earn a living wage. I love restaurants that source their food locally and that sourcing shows in the quality of food we were served. read more. As a customer, you can use the WLAN of the place at no extra cost. What André Thibodeaux doesn't like about Chicory:

We ordered our meal carry out/curb side. I was so excited to try this place because of all the hype. However, I really didn't love it. We ordered several things off of the menu. The pulled pork sandwich was mediocre. The pulled pork was kind of bland and the bread average. I ordered the chicken sandwich but replaced the chicken with tofu. I didn't even finish it. It was not pretty to look at and was too salty? Just w... read more.
