This is an amazing neighborhood spot. You need to order at the register, then they bring you your order. The people who work here are the kindest, friendliest crew. The food is outstanding. Not a wide variety, but the pizza, sandwiches and pasta are all made incredibly well. The location is great too. Feels like we're hanging on the street basically. The cocktails are delicious and potent. This the definite, go to ha... read more. What User doesn't like about Lea:

The staff seem nice. However, I was not impressed by the food. I ordered a pepperoni pizza with my friend and we both felt like we had to use all of our jaw muscles to chew. The pizza was just bread with this salty sauce on top with mozzarella cheese that just fell off. The pepperoni fell off too. Too stale for me. The drinks we ordered were not very flavorful. I think the esthetic of the restaurant is nice, but me an... read more. In Lea in Broad Channel, they prepare tasty pizza using a traditional method, served fresh.
