You can also contact them through their website. What Melvina Schmitt likes about New Rivers: Beau and Andrew are terrific chefs, their food (direct from the farm to the table) is not only fresh, the cooking is perfectly executed, the flavors are heightened, the plates are deliciously colored? We really enjoyed everything, with an affable staff and a lovely decor not saying that they sell an excellent French cider, we felt like in our native France indeed! Put New Rivers in the first place on your list, you w... read more. What David Labadie doesn't like about New Rivers:

Cute and cozy restaurant with a nice atmosphere. The food was delicious but the portions are extremely tiny. The server, however, was very rude and she acted as if you're stupid if you had a question about the menu. She wasn't able to explain anything on the menu. The other server seemed really nice though so your mileage may vary. read more. If you want to a beer after work and hang out with friends, New Rivers from Providence is a good bar, the guests love having the chance to watch the latest games or races on the big TV in this sports bar, while also enjoying food and drinks. One also cooks South American here with fresh seafood, meat, as well as beans and rice, and you can try fine American menus like Burger or Barbecue.
