The food and service were both great. I never had a fajita that had fish, scallops, carrots, cauliflowers and broccoli on it. It also had shrimps and the fried beans with the salad were the best I ever had. My waiter even made an additional effort to thank me for the tip I left him when we were gone. read more. Among the customers, the versatile, delicious Mexican cuisine is also popular, in which mainly corn, beans and hot peppers are used.
