This place is a staple for my partner and I! We go semi-regularly, and we've gotten to know the waiting staff a little. They are very friendly, food is good, and prices are good considering the amount of food you can order: $16 for lunch, $22 for dinner (considering tax a bit). That's for the regular options, that is. That's all we usually get. Bathrooms are a MESS, though. Beware. read more. The restaurant offers complimentary WiFi for its customers,

And into the accessible rooms also come visitors with wheelchairs or physiological disabilities. What User doesn't like about KYOTO Steak & Sushi House:

Not really sure how they have such a high rating. The menu isn't easy to understand, the waitresses are rude and the wait was ridiculous. We had a 7:30 reservation and weren't seated until after 8:40. The floors were littered with trash and dirt, the overall look inside isn't the best. The food was okay but we definitely won't be returning. The prices are also too high for the service they provided. Save you some... read more.
