I'm new to the area and this is the best place I found. Shrimp fried rice was on point and only 9.99. The soup was great. Salad was okay and the sushi plate was pretty good. Definitely back. All for $30. read more. What Bailey McKenzie doesn't like about Tokyo Japanese Steak House & Sushi Bar:

My boyfriend and I have been here twice. The sushi rolls are a hit or miss in my opinion, but he really likes them. We are in agreement that their onion soup isn't as good as the one at Sake Sushi Bar. I really enjoyed a couple of their drinks though, especially the key lime one, but we both agree that some of them are barely potable. The service is great, but I probably won't be back.
