This little seaside restaurant was a great recommendation from a friend. There is parking nearby both street parking as well as a lot that you can park in (weekends only). Prices are fair and the food is very good. Mimosas are very good as well. The staff is friendly and efficient and they have a system to make sure everyone gets seated as soon as possible. What Ezequiel Mertz doesn't like about Caroline's Seaside Cafe:

I never wait so much in my life for breakfast / brunch. If you have in the characters that say that you need to order food before they can assign you a table, just to find out later, you need to wait in life for like 40 minutes to order your food and then you need to find a table to sit so that they can supply you your food?. In the end, I decided to go to my food. You only sell the view of the beach?. the food is ok... read more.
