We always eat here on Christmas Day for years now. It's a long drive for us, but worth it. The food is excellent and reasonably priced. Drinks are great too. And then there is the waterfront view. Due to the tiered design of seating, there's not really a bad seat in the place. Our server this year was super nice and very efficient and patient with us. Can't remember her name, but it was her birthday. Love going to th... read more.
