Got a variety of empanadas, the spicy beef was my favorite, followed by the chicken, then spinach. It was my breakfast and lunch today, the empanadas were hot and freshly baked. They were baked because they were not greasy, the fillings were nice and hot with good flavors. I had the opportunity last week to meet the owners, all very friendly and dedicated to their products. Today I was there for another aspect of work... read more. What

User doesn't like about Continental Gourmet Market:

I am sorry to say this, but the empanadas were not what I expected. The dough is too soft, not crunchy, it's thin and not hearty. The fillings were alright. I am still looking for an empanada with a crumbly, hearty crust. I make my own, but it takes too much time. read more.
