Hands down there is one of the best Ramen spots in Nashville. We have the toncotta and the chicken with an appetizer. The drinks are great and the ambience is everything. It's a little expensive, but compared to the other ramen spots, that's def worth it. read more. The premises in the restaurant are wheelchair accessible and can also be used with a wheelchair or physiological limitations, Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and eat and drink. What Franziska Meyer doesn't like about Two Ten Jack:

The food was just ok. I got the tonkotsu ramen, the broth was too fatty and it tasted like they dumped a bunch of cream in there. My father got some chicken one that was pretty good. When they first bring you water it is served cold but then you need to pour it from these like bottles from the table so it wasn't all that good. The spicy edmame was extremely tasty, only a little spicy. read more. For you, Two Ten Jack from Nashville prepares tasty sushi (e.g., Nigiri and Inside-Out), in many other versions, with fresh ingredients like fish, vegetables and meat, the menu also includes tasty vegetarian menus. You have the option to, after the meal (or during it), still relax at the bar with an alcoholic or non-alcoholic drink, and it's made with lots of fresh vegetables, fish and meat, easily digestible Japanese dishes cooked.
