Food was good overall. Server was very attentive and came around often to refill drinks. Portions were alright, but definitely could have been bigger for the price... the menu was easy to read/comprehend. The tea I had was nice, but they only had oolong as a choice. I'd recommend getting a soft drink honestly. read more. What Lori Casper doesn't like about Mandarin Garden:

A typical small-town Chinese restaurant, the food was fresh and tasted good and they put less salt on request. Three stars is a good rating. On the negative side the The plastic cover on the rice bowl was badly cracked so it shouldn't be in service. The lighting is was very dim, I could hardly read the Chinese horoscope on the paper placemats. Service was efficient and friendly I definitely go here again if I needed... read more. The comprehensive selection of coffee and tea specialties greatly enhances the value of a visit to Mandarin Garden, on the daily specials there are also a lot of Asian meals. The Asian fusion cuisine is likewise an important part of Mandarin Garden. Anyone who finds the normal and generally known meals too boring should approach with a willingness to experiment and try some exciting combination of ingredients taste, Many guests are particularly impressed by the versatile, flavorful Chinese cuisine.
