What User likes about Morgan Street Cafe: Morgan Street Cafe in the West Loop has become my absolute favorite, and for good reason. The coffee is superb, delivering that perfect pick-me-up every time. However, the real star of the show is the Hash Brown Breakfast Burrito – a culinary masterpiece that has no equal. The combination of flavors and textures is simply sublime. Morgan Street Cafe has mastered the art of crafting a cozy atmosphere paired with unpar... read more. When the weather is pleasant you can also eat and drink outside, and there is complimentary WLAN. The rooms on site are accessible, and therefore no problem for clientele with wheelchairs or physiological limitations. What User doesn't like about Morgan Street Cafe:

I never leave reviews, but I'm making time for this. First, outdated interior. Second, disengaged employees. Third, and most importantly, terrible meat quality. I ordered the chipotle chicken, and upon inspection, I could instantly tell it was the frozen rubber kind with fake grill marks. I asked for a refund and the owner begrudgingly said it was "all natural chicken". The quality was worse than McDonald's. I don't... read more. Morgan Street Cafe from Chicago is a cozy café, where you can have a small snack or cake with a hot coffee or a hot chocolate. Also, the guests of the restaurant love the large selection of differing coffee and tea specialties that the establishment has to offer. With fresh fish, meat, as well as beans and rice, here they also South American cook. Customers can enjoy the dishes from establishment through a catering service at home or at the festival.
