If we're in La Jolla, we'll try to stop at Harry's for breakfast. We love the ash-browns. This is a family owner opened in 1960. We had bacon and eggs and hot tea. The tea and ash brown were hot. The eggs, bacon, sausages, toast and pancakes were not cold hot. But the sausages were salty. Breakfast was good, but not great! I mentioned the crispy crispy on top fluffy in the middle hash browns we ordered extra) There i... read more. What User doesn't like about Coffee Couture And Deli:

You can work outside, no inside seating, get your overpriced coffee and don't think about using the bathroom (there is none). I'm sure the only advantage from Starbucks down the street is stronger house brews read more. The large selection of coffee and tea specialties makes a visit to Coffee Couture And Deli even more worthwhile, here they serve a comprehensive brunch for breakfast.
