What Adam likes about Sushi Teri:

Quieter shop despite being in the Village Plaza. This really just means background noise, though. I got chicken udon and it was so great!! The presentation was pretty too. It came out pretty scolding hot though, so not my cup of tea. It's fun to watch the sushi chefs. I made a mistake by getting chicken and not pork, because the chickey wasn't salty at all. That's my own fault. I'm curious to try the pork one though!... read more. The restaurant and its rooms are wheelchair accessible and thus reachable with a wheelchair or physiological disabilities, Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and be served. What User doesn't like about Sushi Teri:

Solid Japanese food restaurant. The portions are a bit smaller than surrounding restaurants but it is cheaper. I like the Ramen here because they bring it to you piping hot which is what I like. Japanese noodle places tend to serve Ramen lukewarm which is not my style. The cucumber salad is great and the service is top notch! Will come back for sure! read more. With a large selection of freshly harvested vegetables, fish and meat, the Sushi Teri from Los Alamitos prepares easy-to-digest, fine Japanese dishes, The creative fusion of different dishes with fresh and partially daring products is highly valued by the guests - a good example of Asian Fusion. You have a ceremony and want to enjoy the food at your place? With the in-house catering service, that's easily doable, On the menu there are also several Asian dishes.
