Afternoon Tea at the Ballantyne is excellent in many ways. The setting is charming, always with beautiful seasonal decorations. The service is exemplary. Right there when you need something without ever interrupting or hovering. The tea choices are wonderful, and the food is very good. Usually there is live music and that adds to the relaxing, enchanting experience. My daughter and I make it a point to do Holiday Tea... read more. What Clifton Davis doesn't like about Afternoon Tea at Ballantyne:

The Easter buffet was great. Mother's day wasn't so great. Definitely scaled by Easter; most "hot" food was not hot. Beef roast was hard, and the turkey had no taste. Please go back to shrimps on ice instead of a shrimp in a "Bloody Mary" mixture with bacon. Service? What service? Called FOREVER to get the check, and it was wrong.

Does not have the deposit I had to make to secure the reservation. I had to raise my AM... read more. In case you're craving some fiery South American cuisine, you're in the right place: exquisite menus, roasted with fish, seafood, and meat, but also corn, beans, and potatoes are in the menu, At the bar, you can relax with a cool beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks. In this locale there is also an comprehensive variety of coffee and tea specialties not to forget, Here you'll find sweet pastries and cake, simple snacks and chilled refreshments and hot beverages.
