Kazan has been on my list to try and have been recommended by long-term residents in McLean. The service was great together with the ambience. My party of 4 tried the Sampler appetizer that was great. The Pita (kuboos) was warm and freshly soft. All other foods were great and well flavored while it was extremely rich in butter and cheese. Special shout on the baklava, which was soft and crumb, made for safe. I would... read more.

What User doesn't like about Kazan:

The owner, Zeynel Uzun, has been around the McLean dining scene for nearly years. He does a tremendous jobservice, food, and ambience are outstanding. In a community where restaurants essentially are just not good overall, Kazan has been the beacon light for many, many years. Mr. Uzun is personable, kind, gracious, and runs a very nice restaurant. The value, the food, and the dishes are honest, ethnic, and authentic.... read more. The Kazan from McLean serves menus that you can find all over Europe, The palate also enjoys easy digestible Mediterranean dishes that are on the menu. The Turkish cuisine offers a wealth of delectable menus like chicken kebab and aromatic lentil or bulgur salad, these can satisfy your cravings, guests often choose the scrumptious, fluffy flatbread, which is perfect for dipping into the own hummus or a creamy yogurt dip; the unusual connection of figs and goat cheese undeniably also belongs to the best dishes of the multifaceted Middle Eastern cuisine.
