The Menu of Half Step from Austin includes about 17 different dishes and drinks. On average, you pay for a dish / drink about $9.7. What Jade Eichmann likes about Half Step: Honestly this review has little to do with the bar itself, though the venue is welcoming and the decor is interesting enough. Most of this is about the live music they put on, this is one of my favorite places in this part of Austin to just pop in for shows when tunes are spilling out onto the street from the back. Grab a friend and grab a seat for a while, you won't regret it. read more. In nice weather you can even eat in the outdoor area, And into the accessible rooms also come clientele with wheelchairs or physiological limitations. What Toygun Basaklar doesn't like about Half Step:

The atmosphere and the music was good there! But.. The cocktails aren't tasty at all. I was being polite when I said "aren't tasty". And they charge a lot for these "not tasty" cocktails.Plus, the snake thing is not funny at all imo. But some people can find it amusing. read more. Half Step from Austin is a good place for a bar to a drink after work and be able to sit with friends or alone, The visitors prefer especially fine juices. It should not be forgotten that there is a extensive selection of coffee and tea specialties in this restaurant, Furthermore, the drinks list in this restaurant is impressive and offers a good and extensive variety of beers from the area and from worldwide, which are definitely worth a try.
