This was our first time visiting this location, since they moved from Uptown. It's definitely more spacious, and must say, the food and service are still excellent! We sat on the patio. Really nice environment. Hadn't been in a while prior to this visit, but we'll absolutely be returning. Oh, and parking is definitely better than the Uptown area.

I got the vegetarian fajitas. There were tons of vegetables but they were mostly onions. The vegetables were not very flavorful this time. The Pina colada was delicious. read more. Anticipate the varied, fine Mexican cuisine, which is usually prepared with corn, beans and chilies (hot peppers), Also, the drinks menu at this place is exceptional and offers a significant and varied selection of both local and international beers, which are definitely worth a try. Surely, it's also a nice event to feel like in the Wild West once, to drink and enjoy like the cowboys or even the bandits with a beverage or two paired with onion rings and a nice juicy burger, With the bite-sized, Tapas, you can't absolutely nothing wrong, especially because there is something for every palate.
