(update:the owner got in contact and fixed everything, now I would recommend! The decor was very cute, but unfortunately the service was a nightmare, we were the only ones there, and our orders came out around an hour apart. Leaving one person without food the whole time we were there, and we had to get it to go. The waitress due to policy, couldn't do anything about it, so we paid in full and left. The restaurant is accessible and can therefore also be used with a wheelchair or physiological disabilities, Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and have something. WiFi is available without additional charges. What User doesn't like about

The Red Pine Cone:

Came here for dinner early on a Friday evening. It's in a lovely area but was a bit too chilly to take advantage of the outdoor seating. Initially it waited was attentive but seen to get caught up in serving folks coming in to their ice cream counter and was distinctly less attentive. The buffalo cauliflower was delish. I got a chicken bacon ranch wrap. It was very heavy on the bacon and the fried chicken was cold. I... read more. If you're craving some zesty South American cuisine, you've come to the right place: delightful meals, roasted with fish, seafood, and meat, though corn, beans, and potatoes are also in the menu, You shouldn't miss the opportunity to try the delicate pizza, baked fresh in an traditional manner. Furthermore, you'll find fine American dishes, like for instance burgers and grilled meat on the menu.
