What User likes about Shogun Palace:

I would definitely recommend calling ahead and making a reservation. Food is great but you don't get to choose which chef you get which kinda sucks. Most are very interactive during your dinner but some aren't. The food is always good but it can be a long time including the show. Set aside at least 2 hours read more. The diner and its premises are wheelchair accessible and thus usable with a wheelchair or physiological disabilities. What User doesn't like about Shogun Palace:

Eat was good, but we went there to my husband's birthday, and the cook asked if he wanted a Saki bomb for his birthday. my man said yes and asked if he had one too, and he said yes. quickly before the bill and we were charged for it and the chefs saki bombe? I don't care, but they could have told us we paid for it. we asked for him and they smiled simply and said: "Oh yes, you paid for it." They also saw my father co... read more. Want to spice up your eating and drinking routine? Come to this sports bar and enjoy a variety of large and small snacks and dishes while watching live football, tennis or Formula 1 games, because just eating and drinking is too dull!,

The creative fusion of different meals with fresh and occasionally daring products is highly valued by the customers - a nice example of Asian Fusion. After the meal (or during it), you can still relax at the bar with a alcoholic or non-alcoholic drink, and a lot of freshly harvested vegetables, fish and meat are used to cook easily digestible Japanese meals.
