I could not believe how incredible this pizza was. I got the number 7 for my half, and I've never had rosemary on a pizza but I'm a changed woman now. We don't make it to the twin cities often, but when we do this will be a necessary stop every time. Also, our waiter was so incredibly kind in a very authentic way. He was a delight. read more. What User doesn't like about Black Sheep Coal Fired Pizza:

Ordered lunch, was the only table initially but got our order after two other groups were seated and they received their food before us. Manager/supervisor was socializing with friends at the bar. Part of order was forgotten and we had to wave the server down to get service. Server never came back to see how the food was after we started eating and hence did not refill our drinks. Pizza was delicious but the Caesar s... read more.
