I order a certain curry and asked if it could be done without fish sauce if possible. the server has double checked with the kitchen and said that unfortunately it could not be made without animal products but then they led me to objects that were vegan. that may be some frustrating, but I guess they were honest. I could have just said that my original curry was vegan and never knew the difference. they are honest an... read more. The visitors love it when Asian cuisine meets a bit of creativity.
