I hate to complain because this DQ has good customer service and the wait isn't long at the drive thru but my kids have complained about the cheese curds being over cooked and they haven't tasted the same the past couple of times we have been there they say they are too crispy hopefully this changes in the future read more.

In beautiful weather you can even be served in the outdoor area. What William Battle doesn't like about Dairy Queen Grill Chill:

Very friendly and responsive staff; but, one staff member used hand to wipe face and nose then handed customer food without washing hands not good. Excessively long time to pick up one item (a blizzard) because of machine problems. read more.
