What User doesn't like about Northeast Seafood Kitchen:

A week before my wife and I decided to make reservations for a date night. When I went online, the latest time was available time a week out 4:30. When we arrived, the restaurant was 90% empty. We thought the people would dive into the time we went, but not really. We asked our server why we could make a later reservation if it was usually emptied. She told us that most people go in and that they only hold a few tabl... read more.
