It was the best experience. We had an amazing waiter (I can't remember his name, and my apologies) he made sure we had everything we needed. One of the other waiters played a truck on him and included us, and we went with him what the visit was even more exciting. He was so nervous, so we broke our silence and let him know it was a joke and blessed him with a Visa gift card. read more. In nice weather you can even eat in the outdoor area. What User doesn't like about Red Robin Gourmet Burgers And Brews:

I usually enjoy taking my family to Red Robin. This evening was definitely an exception. I am far from racist, but this evening the racism with our waitress was obvious. Three more tables were served and supervised. It took an hour to even be taken for our order. The difference was skin color. A fourth table then came with a bigger party and got her food at the same time as us. We had been there for over an hour, the... read more.
