What User likes about Punjab Sweets:

punjab sweets is hidden in a small strip shopping center in kent, and it is the best Indian food in the opposite. eating tastes like art. the personal is knowledgeable about veganism and can recommend dishes for them. most dishes are served with a side of carrots and yogurt. they say they don't want the yogurt, or they'll bring it. I'm asking for extra picky vegetables instead of yogurt. a meal (a deer and appetizer)... read more. What User doesn't like about Punjab Sweets:

I am giving Punjab Sweets a 1 star because the Shahi Paneer and Kofta that we ordered was inedible. Both reeked of butter and floated in it, and there was no flavor in either dishes and we had to just throw it away to our utter dismay as we don't take throwing away food lightly. It's outrageous that they served that in the name of food and we've never had anything like that in our 23 years of eating out in Seattle. T... read more.
