When we were here for the first time, everything was good and we praised to come here more often. Well, we were back twice and it was horrible both times. I don't think there's an administration in the spatial areas, because the personal simply doesn't care. I saw a dirty serviette on the floor near the beginning, obviously for all who walk in and out. 4 different employees went around them instead of picking them up... read more.
