After exploring all of the options at the food hall, we thought these burgers looked like one of the tastiest options. They were closed until 5 the day we were there (we got there early at 4), so we tried another vendor first before venturing back to get a burger. We got the Kalbi burger and Homie Fries. They were both amazing. The burger was cooked right and very juicy. I loved the Korean flavors. The fries were gre... read more. When the weather is good you can also have something outside.
