Authentic Peruvian food. The taste is great, servings are great, ambience is wonderful. Good service. Try the Lomo Saltado, it's really good if you like beef. The Calamari Frito for appetizers. You have some good vegetarian options most importantly, you can go there with your children or order delivery as they have a children's menu read more. In nice weather you can even eat in the outdoor area, and into the accessible rooms also come guests with wheelchairs or physiological disabilities. What User doesn't like about Inka Mama's Santa Ana: We drove almost two hours to celebrate my birthday in this Peruvian restaurant. The food was not on their higher rating, I will give 1 or less. The rice was dry and not fresh, tamale dough and the chicken cold inside. The Lomo was badly done and the meat was hard. I took it home and threw it away. We attacked our money and we are very disappointed. read more.
