Great casual Steakhouse on Highway 59N. aka i-69 in the growing Lake Livingston area. Been there twice in the last few months, each under different names, thankfully; the Food Remains the Same complimented with friendly service and good food. Ribeye Steaks generously sized 2XL were masterfully grilled large enough to served my wife daughter twice more at home. Finally ordered 2 deserts for 4 to share, N.Y. Cheesecake,... read more. I believe the place is called the Southern Peach Steakhouse now. The food we ordered looked like what I would get at Cracker Barrel but tasted much better but still kinda what I expected from like a country cafe. Not really much atmosphere, tables all spread out, pretty good service and everything was reasonably priced with nothing really standing out. I'd probably go back if I was in the Lake Livingston area and try on... read more.
