Happy to have this business up and running again and doing an outstanding job. Their staff is friendly, considerate, and hard working. They even remember our special requests (no olives without us asking. Daily specials are posted, at a reasonable price, and offer a wide variety of cuisines. Their meat selection is exceptional in both quality and quantity, most notably their beef offerings. Having ordered choices fr... read more. The restaurant and its premises are wheelchair accessible and thus usable with a wheelchair or physical disabilities, and there is free WLAN. What Anon ymous doesn't like about Over The Edge Grill: If you enjoy weird colored mystery meat that is not USDA approved then this is the place for you! And the kids will LOVE the frozen mini pancakes soaked in blood! I would recommend skipping the food in Camp Crook all together and head over to Buffalo to the Number 3 Saloon quality and pricing is way better and you don't have to worry about eating mystery meat.
