Birdie's can do no wrong. This Christmas pop up is well executed, with nostalgic early 90s catalog layout for the cocktail menu, tinsel and oversized ornaments hanging above, and a tree complete with seafood themed ornaments. Birdie's is elegant but not stuffy, sophisticated but not try hard, fun and whimsical that yet takes their food seriously. Love it for an intimate date night, a girl's night out, a family gather... What User doesn't like about Birdie's:

Loved the drinks at the Christmas pop-up, but the oysters I ordered were yellow, had many pieces of shell in the middle, weren't purged for grit, and felt like they were decomposing. The Caesar salad is the worst I have ever had. The dressing tasted and felt like milk mixed with water; it was a little nauseating. I was really bummed about my experience here. I would recommend if you only go for drinks. read more. For those who want to a beer after work and hang out with friends, Birdie's from Richmond is a good bar, and you can look forward to the scrumptious traditional seafood cuisine. In this restaurant there is also an extensive selection of coffee and tea specialties not to forget, Also, the drinks menu at this place is exceptional and offers a significant and comprehensive assortment of both local and international beers, which are definitely worth a try.
